

Graduate Credit Enrollment Form
Freedom Summer: 60 Years Later

National History Day, in collaboration with the Mississippi Department of Archives and History, offers the option for teachers participating in Freedom Summer: 60 Years Later program to earn three graduate extension credits from the University of San Diego. Please check with your school to ensure that the credits will be accepted. You will receive an official transcript from the University after the program. The course involves the work you are already doing (participating in the virtual modules and attending the live program in July). The details are:

Course Title: Freedom Summer: 60 Years Later

Credits: 3.0 graduate-level extension credits

Course enrollment: The course is not open for public enrollment (we directly enroll interested participants with the university).

Dates: April 24, 2024 – August 2, 2024

Please type directly into this form or print legibly.
